

Plan for general education for most BSBA majors (Accounting, Business Economics, Entrepreneurial Studies, Finance, General Business, Human Resource Management, Marketing, Management, TIM)

Take the listed courses for those gen ed categories. For the blank categories take an eligible course of your choice but pay attention to the notes column in order to schedule your cross-theme courses and avoid taking more than two courses with the same alpha.

Requirement	Course	✓ if taken	Notes
Cross-theme requirements
Digital Literacy			Take either and fill in course below
Art, Aesthetics and Creativity			Not from Values and Choices B or C or from Com Skills C if taking CSCI 1011.
Common Core Courses
Communication Skills A
Communication Skills B
Communication Skills C			Could use CSCI 1011 for Digital Literacy; if not, it's possible to take AAC course here
Global Systems A
Global Systems B			Not ECON 1010
Global Systems C			Could use CSCI 1041 for digital literacy
Research and Epistemology A
Research and Epistemology B	MATH 1130		MATH 1105 prerequisite
Research and Epistemology C	MATH 1123		MATH 1105 prerequisite
Values and Choices A			Possible AAC course
Values and Choices B	ECON 2010		MATH 1105 and Com. Skills A prerequisite
Values and Choices C	ECON 2015		MATH 1105 and Com. Skills A prerequisite
World Cultures A			Not MATH 2007; Possible AAC course
World Cultures B			Possible AAC course
World Cultures C			Possible AAC course
Upper-Division General Education
Upper-Division Research and Writing	COM 3420 or MGMT 3550		One of these two is required but the course does not overlap with major requirements
Citizenship			