Two-Part Leadership Development Course (LDC)

Register by Oct. 12

Students must attend both sessions;
military experience is not required

The United States Marine Corps (USMC) is leading a two-part leadership course based upon the "Marine Corps Leadership Principles." The focus of this exercise is to encourage leaders to think quickly, relay a plan, properly supervise their plan, and make adjustments as necessary to accomplish their goals.

Part 1:

Principles and Tactical Decision-Making Tools

This class will give you the necessary tools to properly execute the practical application portion of the LDC.

Oct. 21

1 – 3 p.m.

AC 101 (Hawai'i Loa Campus)

Part 2:

Obstacle Course and Leadership Reaction Course

These physical courses will give you the opportunity to overcome challenges on a personal basis and work in small teams to execute various scenarios.

Lunch and refreshments will be served.

Oct. 22

8 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Marine Corps Base Hawai'i, Kāne'ōhe Bay
