

CLA Symposium

North Korea: The Threat; the Reaction; the Perception

HPU
College of Liberal Arts
Empowering Students for the 21st Century World

Join the College of Liberal Arts for the first of our spring semester interdisciplinary symposia as experts analyze the “threat” of North Korea, its depiction in the media and the reactions to the false ballistic missile alert in Hawai‘i.

When: February 12th 5:30-7:30pm

Where: ATM MPR3

Discussants:

Brian Fila: Lecturer International Studies, US Navy Captain (Ret), 32 years experience in the U.S. intelligence community and DOD

Carl Schuster: Instructor International Relations, US Navy Captain (Ret), Intelligence Analyst and former Joint Staff officer

Katherine Aumer: Associate Professor of Psychology

Michael Erickson: Associate Professor of Psychology

For more information contact Dean Allison Gough at agough@hpu.edu.
The event is open to members of the HPU community.

38 Minutes Of Panic In Hawaii (NPR)

False Ballistic Missile Alarm Sends Hawaii into Panic (NY Daily News)

Tears and panic as false missile alert unnerves Hawaii (Reuters)

