

Fall 2012 Lectures:

Wednesdays

@ 11:50 a.m. – 12:50 p.m.

Sharky's Cove

MP 100

Fort Street Mall

Lunch Served

September 12th
KONY 2012: An Update
from Central Africa

Dr. Ayesha Nibbe is an anthropologist specializing in Central Africa

September 26th
Global Trends 2025:
A Transformed World:
A Presentation and Assessment of the U.S. National Intelligence Council Report

Dr. James Corcoran is an historian specializing in National Security Issues

October 10th A Clash of Civilizations?: Islamic Immigration to Europe after World War II

Dr. Jon Davidann is an historian specializing in cross-cultural encounters

October 24th Multiple woundedness: The work of an NGO in Healing the Wounds of the South African Nation

Dr. Lorraine Marais is from South Africa and specializes in social work training of NGOs

November 7th Global Perspectives on Food History and the Contemporary World

Dr. Marc Gilbert is HPU's National Endowment for the Humanities Chair in World History

November 14th Building a Philosophy of Global Citizenship

Dr. Matt LoPresti is a philosopher specializing in East-West comparative philosophy

www.hpu.edu/Global_Issues

PEARSON

Sponsored by: Pearson Publishing, HPU Social Sciences and HPU History Department

