International Vocal Ensemble (IVE) Auditions

LIMITED openings available for talented singers for Fall Term 2012

Tuition scholarships available for selected singers

Hawai'i Pacific University will be holding spring auditions for the International Vocal Ensemble, a choir comprised of select singers with vocal talents and experience. Members of this elite ensemble will perform classic choral literature as well as choral music from countries around the world.

HPU offers partial tuition scholarships for qualified HPU undergraduate and graduate students who are selected for the International Vocal Ensemble.

Audition information and applications can be found on our website:
