

Join us for a discussion of contemporary Sino-Indian relations with a distinguished scholar from India, with a focus on the recent border confrontation:

"Recent Border Transgression Incident and India-China Relations"

Prof. Srikanth Kondapalli

Centre for East Asian Studies

Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, India

Monday, May 20

2:30pm-4:00pm - FS Conference Room

1166 Fort Street Mall, 2nd floor (downtown campus)

Free and open to the public

Dr. Kondapalli is Professor of Chinese Studies at Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), New Delhi, India. He is a specialist in Chinese security issues and the Chinese military. He is an Honorary Fellow at the Institute of Chinese Studies (Delhi). He was educated in China and India, finishing with a Ph.D. in Chinese Studies at JNU. He has been a visiting scholar at the China Institute of Contemporary International Relations in Beijing, and National Chengchi University in Taipei. He is the author of numerous books and articles on Chinese security issues and Sino-Indian relations.

Sponsored by the Department of Social Sciences and the Diplomacy and Military Studies Program at HPU

Contact Prof. Carlos Juárez at cjuarez@hpu.edu for more information