

New Play Festival at the TAG Theatre (across from Dole Cannery)

THREE SHORTS by Mark Tjarks (from the biennial Kauai Shorts Festival, 2007-2011)

Directed by Elitei Tatafu

Impostor*

An anniversary dinner, a wife afraid her husband has Capgras delusion, in which a man believes a person close to him has been replaced by a look-alike, and a husband who believes his wife is an impostor. Starring Lisa Barnes (Wife) and Tim Jeffreys (Husband).

Folie A Deux

A patient involved with community theatre becomes obsessed with an actor named Fregoli who seems to be stalking her. In the end, it becomes clear that this is a madness shared by at least two, folie a deux. Starring Shannon Winpenny (the Patient), Bob Jones (the Therapist), and Elitei Tatafu (Fregoli).

The Heroine

A male playwright has trouble creating a three dimensional female character to complement his Hero. Starring Kim Anderson (the Heroine), David James Bachler (the Hero), Bob Jones (the Playwright) and Lisa Barnes (another Playwright).

Tickets and Showtimes

Tuesday, February 19, at 7:30 pm

Ticket Prices: $10.00. Free pupus and beverages will be served.

Reservations are strongly encouraged: Call 722-6941.

For more information visit the PlayBuilders site: <http://www.playbuilders.org/?cat=20>

* Winner of the Producer's Choice Award, 2007 Kauai Shorts Festival. Also had a staged reading at Theatre Southwest (Houston) in 2010.

2009 Kauai Shorts Festival. Also staged at Aloha Theatre's OPF 2009.

Winner of the Audience and Best Comedy Awards, 2011 Kauai Shorts Festival. Also staged at Aloha Theatre's OPF 2011 and for 4 performances at the Winter One Act Competition at the Manhattan Repertory Theatre in 2013.