The Board may interpret a specific course to be psychological in nature even though it is not labeled as a psychology course. The Board shall render this opinion if it believes that the course is psychological in content and it has been taught by a psychologist. The doctoral degree course study in psychology shall include a pre-doctoral or post-doctoral internship approved by the American Psychological Association or its equivalent.  CPQ Accepted? As of 2003 — In process of accepting CPQ (voted to accept CPQ and are in process of making legislative or administrative changes necessary for implementation.)  Examinations Required EPPP and an oral exam  See https://www.apaservices.org/practice/ce/state/state-info  NOTE: It is NOT clear whether the state would accept a doctorate in psychology from a program currently not APA-accredited. The HPU PsyD Program is not APA-accredited, but it is currently applying for APA-accreditation. NOTE: The state may require post-doctoral hours be completed for licensure. See
