

image from pexels.com

In this course, you will learn

- appropriate methods and techniques for presenting, practicing, and reviewing materials to specific groups of ESOL learners
- strategies for addressing individual differences that affect learning and teaching
- sound teaching practices appropriate for various teaching situations
- second language acquisition principles underlying speaking and listening

COURSE DESCRIPTION: An investigation of current materials and methods for teaching oral fluency, pronunciation, listening skills, and oral grammar. Also included are methods and materials for evaluating speaking and listening. Students observe oral fluency/listening classes, as well as prepare and present short teaching demonstrations.

AL = Applied Linguistics, the study of language in use.

AL courses can lead to a minor, certificate, or degree in T.E.S.O.L.*

*Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

For more information, see your adviser or write tesol@hpu.edu.