Star-Spangled Banner

(The Defense of Fort McHenry)

September 20, 1814

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Lyrics by: Francis Scott Key

Commencement Speaker

Major General Arthur “Joe” Logan

Major General Arthur “Joe” Logan, former Adjutant General, Hawai‘i, is an HPU alumnus with a distinguished career of service in Hawai‘i and abroad. As Adjutant General, Logan oversaw the training and readiness of 5,500 Hawai‘i National Guard soldiers and airmen and served as the Homeland Security Advisor to the governor and the Director of the Hawai‘i Emergency Management Agency.

From 1982-2002, Logan also concurrently served in the Honolulu Police Department. He completed his Bachelor of Arts in Justice Administration and Management at HPU in 1993, while serving with the National Guard. Logan went on to earn his Masters of Strategic Studies in 2004, at the U.S. Army War College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

During his 40 years of military experience, Logan received numerous awards and decorations, including the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, and Meritorious Service Medal.

About our Valedictory Speakers

Valedictory speakers at Hawai‘i Pacific University are selected on the basis of grade point average and service to the community.

Christine Tamayo, Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Christine Tamayo is from Honolulu, Hawai‘i and is the youngest and only daughter born to Genie and Editha Tamayo. She will be graduating from Hawai‘i Pacific University with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing. Instilled with a passion to help others, Tamayo chose to pursue nursing for its truly humbling and rewarding career and finds it an honor and privilege to be with individuals during a time of vulnerability. During her time at HPU, she was an active member of the Student Nurses’ Association and fundraised and volunteered with local organizations, such as Hawai‘i Pacific Health and the Blood Bank of Hawaii. Tamayo is also a member of Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing. After graduation and passing the NCLEX, she will become a cardiac telemetry nurse in Washington and plans to eventually bring back what she learns to the islands. She will continue to encourage those who can to donate blood because of the tremendous reward of saving lives - plus it’s free!

Kit-U Wong, Master of Education in Educational Leadership

Kit-U Wong was born in Macau but has called Hawai‘i home since she was seven. After graduating from Maryknoll School, Wong earned a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Scripps College and has been sharing her love for learning and economics at Maryknoll as a teacher ever since. She will be graduating from Hawai‘i Pacific University with a Master of Education in Educational Leadership. Wong was named Teacher of the Year by the Hawai‘i Council on Economic Education in 2018 for developing innovative strategies to inspire her students to succeed in economics and personal finance. In addition to teaching, she also serves as Maryknoll School’s dean of social studies and mathematics. In her spare time, Wong enjoys reading, writing, and traveling.

Academic Honors and Degree Conferral

Academic honors and degrees for this ceremony are calculated based upon grades earned prior to commencement. Final honors and degrees are conferred when the University Registrar posts the degree to the student's official transcript. Students graduating with HPU honors are wearing an honors sash as follows: Associate degree students graduating With Honors

(with overall 3.4 – 4.0 HPA) receive a blue sash; Bachelor degree students graduating Summa Cum Laude (3.9 – 4.0 HPA), Magna Cum Laude (3.7 – 3.89 HPA), and Cum Laude (3.4 – 3.69 HPA) receive a green sash; and Master degree students graduating With Distinction (3.8 – 4.0 HPA) receive a gold sash.

Honors Regalia

Graduating students wearing honors regalia are members of local, national, or international honor societies. Honor cords, pins, or medallions identify students as members of one of the societies or programs listed below:

Alpha Chi: Blue and green cords. Membership is limited to the top 10% of juniors and seniors based on their HPU GPA and completion of 30 credits at HPU.

Alpha Epsilon Delta: Red and violet cords. Membership is limited to students with at least a 3.2 GPA in science courses and a major interest in medicine.

Alpha Lambda Delta: Red, gold, and white cords. Membership is limited to students in their first year at HPU who have achieved a GPA of 3.5.

Alpha Sigma Lambda: Maroon and gold cords. Membership is limited to undergraduate students at least 27 years of age who have a GPA of 3.2.

Beta Beta Beta: Green and red cords. Membership is limited to students enrolled in biological sciences with a GPA of at least 3.0.

Chi Alpha Sigma: Gold medallions. Membership is limited to students in HPU athletics who have earned the equivalent of an intercollegiate varsity letter and have maintained a GPA of at least 3.4.

Delta Mu Delta: Purple and gold cords. Membership is limited to undergraduate and graduate students in the business degree program having a minimum GPA of 3.4 and 3.6 respectively.

Kappa Mu Epsilon: Lapel pins. Membership is limited to undergraduate students majoring in mathematics who have earned a GPA of 3.0 or better and rank in the upper 35% of their class.

Lambda Pi Eta: Red and white cords and lapel pin. Membership is limited to students majoring in communication who have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.25 for all communication courses.

Mu Kappa Tau: Royal blue cord and lapel pin. Membership is limited to undergraduate or graduate marketing students who have a cumulative GPA of 3.25 and undergraduate students who are either in the top 10% of their junior class or top 20% of their senior class.

Phi Alpha: Single gold cord. Membership is limited to students enrolled in the social work degree program who have an overall cumulative GPA of 3.0 and a GPA of 3.25 in social work courses.

Phi Alpha Theta: Lapel pins and sashes. Membership is limited to students majoring in history ranking in the top 35% of their class with a GPA of at least 3.1 in history classes.

Pi Sigma Alpha: Medallion. Membership is limited to students majoring or having taken at least six upper-division credits in political science and have a cumulative GPA of 3.2.

Psi Chi: Blue and silver cords. Membership is limited to students in psychology who have a cumulative GPA of 3.45 and rank in the top 35% of their class.

Sigma Delta Pi: Lapel pins. Membership is limited to students studying Spanish language and culture who have a GPA of 3.0 in their Spanish courses and rank in the top 35% of their class.

Sigma Tau Delta: Red and black cords. Membership is limited to students majoring in English or minoring in Writing, Film Studies, or Literature who have a cumulative GPA of 3.44.

Sigma Theta Tau: Orchid and white cords. Membership is limited to nursing students who have a GPA of 3.0 (3.5 for graduate students) and are of junior or senior status with a ranking in the highest 35% of the nursing class.

Upsilon Pi Epsilon: Maroon and white cords and lapel pin. Membership is limited to students in the study of information systems, computer science, and computer information systems who have a GPA of 3.0 for undergraduate students or a 3.5 for graduate students.

University Scholar: Gold-ribboned honors medallion signifies a University Scholar who has maintained at least a 3.4 GPA in addition to completing nine honors-designated courses in their degree program, participated in extracurricular activities, and completed a senior presentation.

Academic Regalia

Graduates and faculty participating in HPU's commencement ceremonies wear traditional academic attire. Associate and bachelor's degree candidates wear black gowns with straight sleeves. Master's degree candidates wear black gowns with oblong sleeves and hoods with colors that represent their degree programs. Doctoral candidates wear black gowns with bell-shaped sleeves, including three velvet bars, black velvet panels down the front with the university logo, black velvet tam, and hoods with the colors that represent their degree program. Faculty may wear the regalia representing the university from which they received their terminal degree. At HPU, graduates may also wear lei in addition to honors cords, sashes and stoles. Tassel colors represent the various degree programs. They include:

GRADUATE SEATING CHART

STAGE

Aloha Class of 2019!

On behalf of the Hawai'i Pacific University Alumni Council, congratulations on your graduation from Hawai'i Pacific University. Celebrate with family, friends, loved ones, and classmates as this is a special day for all of you. Today you will join the HPU Alumni 'Ohana comprised of over 45,000 individuals around the world.

Last year, the Hawai'i Pacific University Alumni Council was formed with 21 alumni spanning 8,000 miles representing Hawai'i, California, Washington, Colorado, Chicago, New York, Washington D.C., Sweden, Norway, and Brazil with the goal of connecting HPU Alumni around the world.

Within the last year and a half, we kicked off our inaugural Honolulu Alumni Pau Hana bringing 70 alumni back to campus for a night of memories, laughter and networking. We hosted pau hana events, sponsored Grad Fest, wrote letters for a cause and celebrated the graduating class with a toast to the future, relaunched the Alumni Luau, co-hosted Student Welcome Receptions, Grad Fest Fall 2019, HPU's 54th birthday and more pau hanas. It is my hope to see you at a future event and that you remain connected with the University and the Alumni.

After today, many of you will depart Hawai'i onward to your next journey around the world, but never forget you will always have an 'ohana of over 45,000 fellow alumni. This is not a "goodbye forever," but rather an "until we meet again," as we will gladly welcome you back to the islands with open arms.

Stay connected and updated on the latest news and events by emailing alumni@hpu.edu today!

Again, congratulations to the class of 2019. Go Sharks!

Mahalo,
Avery Fukeda '15
HPU Alumni Council President

ALUMNI PLEDGE

As an alumnus of Hawai'i Pacific University,

I pledge to take the meaningful values, lessons, and experiences I've received

And use them to make a lasting and positive impact in our communities.

I pledge to look closer at the issues that define our generation, to see further into why our actions matter, and to do more to ensure we leave this world better than when we found it.

I pledge to cherish the meaningful relationships I've built at HPU, and to continue building an active, global society.

I pledge to embrace the value of diversity in our community, and to bring empathy, compassion, and a global awareness wherever life may take me.

I pledge to preserve the traditional values of Hawai'i, both in the islands and throughout the world.

To act pono, by upholding righteousness and integrity in our communities.

To tend to my kuleana, by taking responsibility for my actions and looking out for others.

And to spread the message of aloha by showing endless compassion to all.

I am forever changed by these lifelong values, lessons and experiences,
Which have shaped me into a thoughtful leader, a global citizen, and most of all, a proud member of the HPU 'ohana.

A UNIVERSITY ON THE MOVE

CREATING A STUDENT-CENTRIC UNIVERSITY

HPU has moved forward to provide a world-class urban campus, where our students will live, learn, and pursue their life-long passions while engaging more with our community. Central to our vision is delivering on the promise to provide a hub of student life at Aloha Tower Marketplace with centers for student learning in close proximity at Pioneer and Waterfront Plazas.
