Student Daily Must-Do List

- Fill out the required daily health survey, accessing it on your myHPU app or at hpu.edu/screening.

- If you answer 'yes' to any of the health-screening questions:
 - Stay home
 - Inform your professors
 - Seek healthcare if needed. On-campus student health services are available at Aloha Tower Marketplace Health Clinic:
(808) 544-9361, studenthealth@spclinic.org

- Take your temperature daily at a campus thermal scanner station and show your daily health pass to security or your faculty.

 Wear your face covering at all times in public and common areas.

 Wash your hands and use hand sanitizer frequently.

- Keep 6 feet of social distancing between yourself and others at all times.
- Read signage for important health and safety directions such as:
 - Maximum capacity for a campus space or elevator
 - The entrance and exit pattern into the classroom
 - Fill seats in class from the front row first to the back, and exit beginning with the back.
 - No drinking or eating in class.

Scan for your daily health screening and more information.

- Check for sanitization stations in campus spaces and classrooms to clean shared desk or work-station, supplementing the regular cleaning by custodial staff.
- Seek support if you need it:
 - Counseling and Behavioral Health Services staff for free, and confidential services by phone: (808) 687-7076, counseling@hpu.edu
 - University Chaplain services offered: (808) 687-7031
 - you.hpu.edu portal connects students to well-being and self-awareness resources.

If someone tests positive, HPU's Security Department will:

- Ensure that the individual is safe, isolated, and seeking medical care
- Relocate nearby individuals and secure the potentially impacted area
- Initiate internal contact tracing
- Initiate disinfecting protocols
- Contact and liaise with the Hawaii Department of Health
- Inform appropriate HPU staff
- Ensure the notification of individuals directly affected.

We are all in this together as 'ohana.

Mahalo!
